"Help for the desperate, those willing to seek Jesus Christ for the answers in their lives."

We Worship You

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding" Proverbs 9:10 In today's world, we have an endless stream of knowledge at our fingertips. "ASK GOOGLE" The knowledge is endless. Let us not forget that knowledge and wisdom are 2 totally different things. Knowledge says integrity is doing the right thing when no one is looking...Wisdom says to fear the Lord who sees and knows all. The reverent root of wisdom shifts our thinking from "how will this benefit me" to "how will this glorify God." The scripture says the beginning of wisdom - the foundation. We don't need to know or understand everything. We just need to get a real relationship with the One who does know everything and trust Him through every process.

MORTGAGE PAYOFF 2025

Dear Friends & Family,

As most of you know, Mission Teens has 20 centers across the United States. We have been in business since 1969, nearly 40,000 men & women have entered our ministry. We still have an 88% success rate and attending our program is still free. Over the past several years we have had to yield to the governmental authorities and make some changes to our infrastructure in some cases. We have six outstanding mortgages, and we have two new mortgages we recently had to obtain to remain in business. We are asking for your help to pay off these loans. We really need your help. Please mail your check to Mission Teens Board of Directors Fund, P.O. Box 248, Gaastra, Michigan 49927 (mark Mortgage in the memo) or you may remit through PayPal

My name is Christian Robles; I am 33, I was born in California, and raised in Memphis, TN. I started working at 14 years old and was constantly around adults who spoke about using drugs and alcohol. Eventually, curiosity got the best of me, and I started to take part in those activities with them. It helped me to deal with the abuse I received at home. I was young, bored, and felt neglected, the enemy had gotten a hold of me. As the years passed, I dove into the liquor bottle. I met a woman fell in love, had children, unfortunately, we were both broken and I ended up leading her into my own addiction. After we separated, she moved on, and I was left drowning in the world. I isolated myself to a place where no one would even know if I was alive. In all that darkness I would hear and feel something telling me, I needed to get help. I knew that rehab wasn't enough for me, I needed something more. I went to a ministry, found the Lord, and graduated, but didn't listen to the Lord. I still had my doubts. I was quick to fall back into my old ways. My friend brought me to Freedom House, back to Jesus. Finally, I was able to listen and be still. I slowly learned to accept that I am not a mistake, I am loved. It's hard for me to receive love, because it usually comes with conditions, but Jesus has shown me his unconditional love. Since I have been here, I faced a medical issue that slowed me down. As my brothers and sisters were helping me, I saw the glow of the Holy Spirit coming off them. I realized that Jesus would never leave me or forsake me, and He has given me a family to show me HIS love. Matthew 25:35 says, For I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty, and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger, and you invited me in. I can now say I am all in for Him, because He was always there for me even when I didn't know it. John 10:3-4, talks about listen to Jesus's voice, I heard His voice when I was in darkness, I followed it, and He brought me home.
