Barry Adams combined carefully chosen verses to write a heart-warming "letter" from God the Father to the reader.

My name is Kimberly Tomlinson. I was born and raised in Pocahtonas, Tennessee. The Lord blessed me with a great family that taught me about Jesus at a young age. I received salvation when I was young and even though I took the wrong path for a while, I know that Jesus was with me keeping me safe the entire time. In high school I started hanging out with what I thought was the "cool kids". I can remember just riding around and getting drunk and high with them. I fell in love with drinking. It seemed like I was having the time of my life and then everything started to unravel. I got my first DUI because of my actions but that didn't even slow me down. I knew the Lord, so I feel like even then I was under constant conviction. I got another DUI and lost my license. Every day I felt disappointment from my parents. I was miserable and I felt constant shame, worthlessness and misery. I decided to stop drinking and taking pills and switched over to meth. I really fell in love with meth. I got lost in my addiction and I got lost in life. I knew the truth but couldn't seem to make myself stop. The Lord was convicting me, but I was fighting His Spirit. I got to the point where I felt hopeless and helpless like Jesus wouldn't forgive me. That is a lie, but I was believing it. I made my way to Freedom House because I needed to change. I was in a battle and then I walked through the doors, and everything changed. I began to feel worthy again. I received healing through worship and Bible classes. I have the most joy and peace that I have ever had in my life. My parents are proud and supportive of me again. The Lord has restored the relationship with my family to better than it ever was. My parents are even getting stronger in their faith through me being at Freedom House. Not only did Jesus restore my family, but He also gave me a new family. I never would have dreamed I would have such wonderful brothers and sisters in Jesus like I do here. Thank you so much Jesus, I love you! "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." Romans 12:2

ABBA - FATHER

Summer is here and we are blessed to be able to participate in park evangelism outreach again this year. We will be shining the light of Jesus in 3 new areas this year...Caruthersville, Steele and Portageville City parks. We are working with The Open Door Church and the local churches in each community to hand our food, play worship music and most importantly share the Gospel of Christ. Last summer several people accepted Jesus as a result of the park evangelism. Please pray for us as we are excited to have the opportunity again this summer.
