"Help for the desperate, those willing to seek Jesus Christ for the answers in their lives."

"Some sat in the darkness, in utter darkness, prisoners suffering in iron chains... Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and He saved them from their distress. He brought them out of darkness, the utter darkness, and broke away their chains. Let them give thanks to the Lord for His unfailing love and His wonderful deeds for mankind, for He breaks down gates of bronze and cuts through bars of iron." – Psalm 107:10, Psalm 107:13-16

We have all felt like we were prisoners to something...addictions, habits, complaining, bad attitudes etc. Most of the time, when we are caught in that trap, we even hate the very thing that we are doing. Paul describes this behavior in Romans 7:18-20 "And I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature. I want to do what is right, but I can't. I want to do what is good, but I don't. I don't want to do what is wrong, but I do it anyway. But if I do what I don't want to do, I am not really the one doing wrong; it is sin living in me that does it."

Before I came to the Lord, I felt like I was in prison (to myself) with no way out. I tried so many times to do what was right, but I couldn't. I believed that I could only come to the Lord after I got myself better. That is simply not true. The truth is that Jesus is with us even at our lowest places. You can try hundreds of times to get "free" but it will never work until you cry out to Him! In His perfect timing, He breaks every chain. Then we are free to walk in the plans and purposes that He has for our lives. He is the chain breaker!

We (and other Mission Teen centers) currently have open beds for men and women. Jesus loves you. He wants to set you free.

Cry out to Jesus and see your life begin to change!!

Hello, I'm Misty Davidson. I'm 46 years old and from Moberly, Missouri. I grew up in a Christian home-Baptist. I was saved at the age of 9 but it seemed like at an early age, fear, torment, and anxiety set in and I doubted my salvation and my self-worth. I grew up in a very prideful and strifeful home. My Christian roots go deep on my dad's side. A lot of pastors and deacons of the church, but my momma's side of the family wanted nothing to do with the Lord. A lot of generational curses on that side. My momma spent a lot of time in fitness and my dad was gone on the railroad and hunting and fishing then my sister, me and my brother were sat down when I turned 16 and they told us they were divorcing so everything I had been taught or believed is by God, my morals, was a lie or seemed to be. I began skipping school, smoking weed, drinking alcohol, dropped out of school, my momma kicked me out at the age of 17. At the age of 17 my life changed to a very dark road. I was turned out for crack by a 43-year-old man, and it led me down a road to pure darkness to almost deaths door. I had a daughter in 95 and another in 2000. I always could feel I was always empty searching for more. Always fearful, anxious, another abusive relationship, another DUI, more drink, more drugs, 10 more detox's, OD's, 2 more mental wards, food, puke, starve, torment, prison and then losing my children. Oh Lord please...the guilt and shame is too much to bear...Well 2 years ago I found out I had stage 3 chronic liver disease and in October 2023. "In my desperation I prayed, and the Lord listened, and He saved me from all my troubles." Psalms 34:6 I cried out to the Lord He came into my room gently and got me up and restored me. I called Freedom House and I have been here since November 11th. The Lord has completely set me free! I have a purpose in life. I love the Lord. Since I have been here, I have prayed for chicken- fried chicken. I became the food manager and a week later we got fried chicken. Taste and see that the Lord is good. "They overcame Him by the blood of the lamb and the word of their testimony." Revelation 12:11
